

John Cudney, the "miracle man" of New Orleans, preaching to a crowd that has gathered near his houseboat. Many sensational and miraculous "cures" have been reported as a result of his prayers and teachings, and thousands are flocking to him daily.

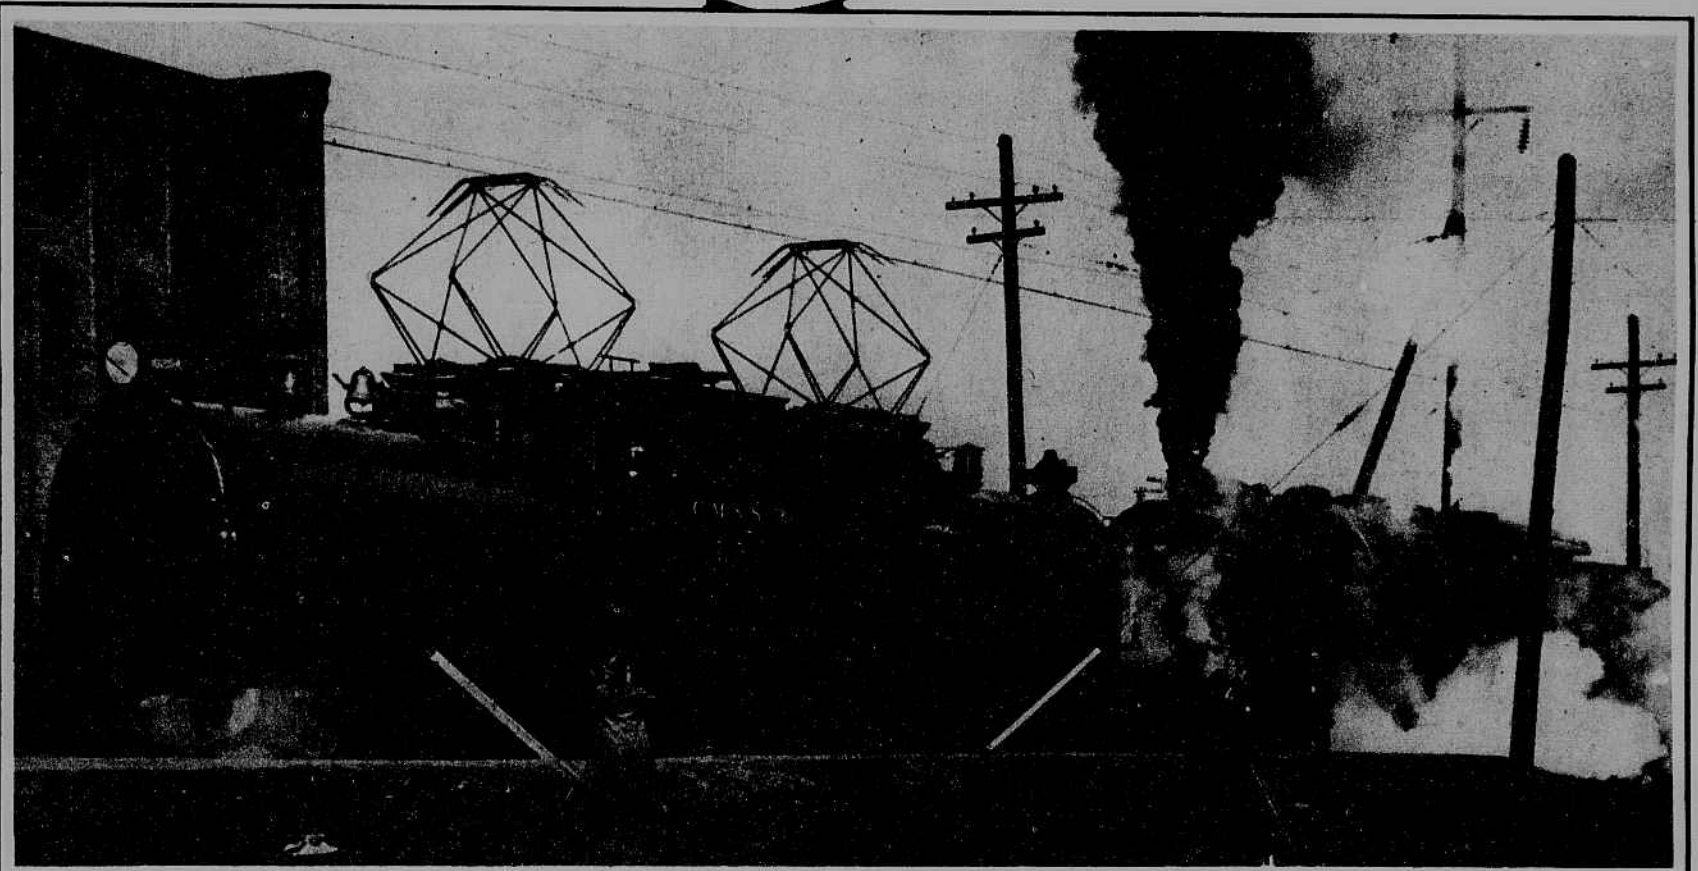

"The world's best basketball player," Howard Cann, forward of the N. Y. U's crack five which recently won the A. A. U. basketball championship tournament at Atlanta, Ga. Cann received a silver cup from an Atlanta newspaper.

Keen-eyed Major Albert Smith, an army aviator, who made a one-day record with a 1,300-mile flight from Tacoma, Wash., to San Diego, Cal., in eleven hours flying time. He made three stops en route.

at the Astor witness a gorgeous "The Pageant of Ancient France," various affairs given by this group of the above flashlight was taken at the (Batcheler) was being borne on a of the Queen of Beauty (Mrs. Underwood

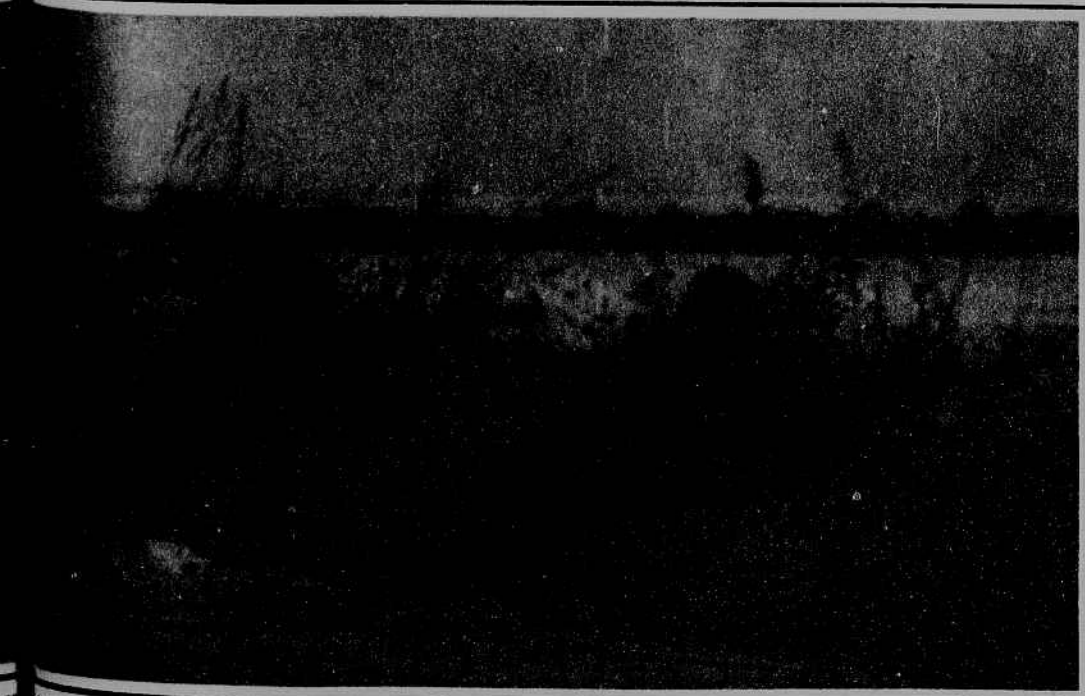

Three-year-old Francis Brown, sub-junior aquatic champ at the recent meet of the Women's Swimming Association of New York, and his dad, Captain Alfred Brown, the first man to swim the Panama Canal. Little Francis holds the silver cup presented to him for his remarkable swimming ability.

A tug-of-war with reverse English between steam and electricity. One of the General Electric's new giant locomotives for the C. & St. P. Railway engages in a pushing contest with a huge Mallet freight locomotive. And the silent electric easily won against its puffing competitor.

monstrates his famous headlock for him over Earl Caddock, hour and thirty-five minutes of Madison Square Garden. International Left—Raw recruits at the army engineers' Camp Humphreys, just outside of Washington, are being taught the gentle art of blowing up bridges and railway tracks just as though the war was not over. This particular blow-up was staged for the photographers.

Right—"Woof!" Visitors to Yellowstone Park are likely to be similarly greeted most any day by one of the many tame bears that roam the reservation. Here's a tree-climbing teddy enjoying a game of hide-and-seek with our photographer.

own against a party of marauding "reds." S. Tornello